

Hazel Davey
(Headteacher)

I moved from Essex in 1987 when I married my husband who came from Hexham and I have loved living in Northumberland ever since.

I have always wanted to be a teacher. After teacher training in London, I taught in Barking and Dagenham for 3 years.

I have been a teacher at Chollerton First School for 22 years and the Headteacher for 2 years.

I have 2 children, a son and a daughter. My daughter is a pupil at Hexham Middle School and my son is studying engineering at Newcastle College.

We have 2 cats and a goldfish.

In my spare time!! – I enjoy gardening, yoga, walking and reading.
